|------------|------------|-----------------|-----------|------------|------------------|
| 1. All ye | Gen - tile | lands a - wake! | Thou, O | Sa - lem, | rise and shine! |
| 2. Lo! the | sha - dows | flee a - way, | for our | Light is | come at length, |
| 3. Ah, how | blind - ly | did we stray | ere shown | forth this | glo - rious Sun, |
| 4. But the | glo - ry | of the Lord | ris - es | up - on | us to - day. |

| | | | | |
|-------------|--------------|--------------------|-------------------|-------------------------------|
| See the | day - spring | o'er you break, | her - al - ding a | morn di - vine. |
| Bright - er | than all | earth - ly day, | Source of | be - ing, life and strength! |
| Seek - ing | each our | sep - arate way, | leav - ing | heav'n un - sought, un - won. |
| We have | seen the | Light out - poured | that must | sure - ly drive a - way |

| | | | |
|------------|-------------------------------|---------------------|--------------------|
| Tel - ling | God hath called to mind | those who long in | dark - ness pined. |
| Who - so | on this Light would gaze | must for - sake all | e - vil ways. |
| All our | looks were earth - ward bent. | All our strength on | earth was spent. |
| All things | that to night be - long, | all the sad earth's | woes and wrong. |

A - rise, shine, for your Light has come, and the glo - ry of God ris - es now, up - on you. Lift up your eyes and look to the Son, for the glo - ry of God gath - ers all a - round you.
